

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Boston Litigation Solutions proudly announces the opening of Chicago Litigation Solutions

Boston, Massachusetts (October 15, 2009) - Boston Litigation Solutions, a premier provider of litigation support services for the Boston marketplace, proudly announces the opening of Chicago Litigation Solutions ("CLS"). CLS will provide the Chicago marketplace with a full range of straight-forward, cost-effective litigation support services including ESI processing, document review hosting solutions, early case assessment/data culling services, software assisted document review tools, near-duplication & email threading, as well as a full array of paper services.

BLS is thrilled to welcome and introduce the new Managing Partner of our Chicago location:

Marc Quinlivan

Marc Quinlivan, Managing Partner, was born in Evergreen Park, Illinois. Marc has strong ties to the Chicagoland community. After graduating from Oak Park River Forest High School, Marc excelled at Yale University where he graduated in four years with a double major in Economics and Mathematics and was awarded ten varsity letters in football and track. Following a brief stint with the Pittsburgh Steelers Football Organization, Marc attended Illinois Institute of Technology's Chicago-Kent School of Law and the Illinois Institute of Technology's Stuart Graduate School of Business. He received his Juris Doctor Degree and practiced law for over ten years throughout the United States in the fields of Medical Malpractice, Premises & Product Liability, Insurance Coverage, Toxic Tort Litigation, and Complex Commercial Litigation. As a young partner he was put in charge of his firm's paralegals and litigation support department. This diverse background established a solid foundation for his transfer into the litigation support field. Marc joined Spherion Deposition Services in Chicago and in three years at Spherion, Marc rose from a sales professional to Managing Director of Chicago Operations, and ultimately earning the position of Executive Vice President. As one of Spherion's premier producers, Marc has generated millions of dollars in annual revenue from his diverse list of dedicated clients. Following his stay at Spherion, Marc established a local court reporting and document management firm which was sold to the nation's largest court reporting agency within two years. Marc then joined a global business process outsourcing company and was charged with developing solutions to address his clients' diverse needs primarily in the legal sector. It would be fair to say that Marc's unique background, training and experience over the past two decades provides a valuable platform upon which to build Chicago Litigation Solutions. He has been where you need to go and will help you get there.

We hope Chicago is ready for the same high standards we have set in the Boston marketplace based upon our unmatched capacity, pricing, and responsiveness. We like to boast in Boston that our references simply include anyone who has ever used our services and we are positioned to repeat that in Chicago too.

Marc's unique background, training, and experience provide a valuable platform upon which to build Chicago Litigation Solutions. Welcome aboard Marc!
